

Abbazia di Novacella Alto Adige DOC Moscato Rosa "Praepositus" 2007

Ruby red with flecked with tinges ranging from purple almost to mauve; intense fragrances of liqueur cherries and ripe apple make way for cocoa powder-laced nuances of blueberry forest fruits against an equally concentrated backdrop of dried rose petals; marked sweetness in the mouth is contrasted by a refreshing acidity and the very long-lingering length signs off with a grace note of liqueur cherries and roses. This deep, very fragrant wine should be served at a temperature of about 68 °F in moderately broad glasses about four centimeters across at the rim to concentrate the attractive aromas. An excellent match for red berry tarts and similar cakes.
